JOHN HAY DEAD.

NEWBURY, N. H., July 1.—John Hay, Secretary of State, is dead of pulmonary embolism. He died at midnight of sudden collapse. On Friday he seemed to be improving.

MET THEIR OLD CHIEF ONCE MORE STEAMER NOT TO TAKE PASSENGERS

A. M. BROWN PRESENTED TO FORCE AFTER MIDNIGHT AND TOOK FORMAL CHARGE.

CAN NOT SECURE A LICENSE AND WILL THEREFORE HAVE TO DISCHARGE PASSENGERS.

The formal transfer of the police department occurred shortly after midnight. County Sheriff Brown accompanied by Territorial Deputy High Sheriff Rawlins met the force. The scene was in striking contrast to that which occurred last October when the same A. M. Brown took farewell as high sheriff of the same force that had served under him for many years. That meeting was one of sorrow to the men on the force and they showed it in a way that was impressive. The reunion last night was, in the main, an occasion of much joy to members of the force for their former chief was back to command them.

Deputy High Sheriff Rawlins introduced the new county sheriff, after which Brown spoke to the men and said that there would be no changes in the personnel of the force for the present. Cheers were given for Brown and Rawlins. The position held by Rawlins has now lapsed and he will resume the practice of law with offices in the Stangenwald building.

Last night about 8 o'clock the force as Territorial police were mustered and addressed by High Sheriff Henry and Deputy Rawlins. The men were notified by the High Sheriff that their commissions as Territorial officers would be revoked, the order to take effect at midnight. This charge was merely a formal order necessary by the change of government. The police commissions as county officers were made out by Brown today.

HILO-KOHALA FRANCHISE PAU

HILO RAILWAY COMPANY MAY EXTEND ITS LINES TO KOHALA NOW.

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway has cancelled the Hilo-Kohala Railway Company's franchise, on account of the failure of the company to comply with the terms. This is believed to be the end of the company, which was organized over five years ago to connect Hilo and Kohala by rail. It is said that the Hilo Railway Company may make the road, but the other enterprise has apparently died out. Philip Peck withdrew some time ago, and it is understood that the company failed to raise the money needed to build the road.

The railway company was incorporated in May, 1899, and applied for a right of way. The Superintendent of Public Works made a preliminary agreement granting rights of way in July, 1899, and a later, more complete agreement in July, 1900. Then the company proceeded to try and raise money for its road. The venture did not appear to be a success, however, and Hilo and Kohala will have to go without a railroad, unless the reported intention of the Hilo Railway Company to build is carried out.

When the S. S. Stanley Dollar leaves Honolulu she will probably leave without Japanese passengers. The vessel has neither an American nor a British license to carry passengers and as there is no chance apparently, of her receiving such license now, she will be unable to take the passengers.

British consul Layard stated this morning that the vessel would discharge her prospective passengers and proceed without them. She had no license so could not haul passengers.

It is not known exactly when the vessel will sail. There is even a possibility that she may go to San Francisco from Honolulu instead of to Victoria as she has cargo for San Francisco.

There was talk this morning of having warrants issued for the arrest of Captain J. C. Bruce the master of the vessel, Mr. Dollar the owner of the vessel and Tekutake the Japanese ticket agent on charges of gross cheat. The charge upon which it was proposed to arrest them, was that the money accepted from the prospective passengers of the vessel had been taken under the representation to the people that the steamer was to take the passengers to either Seattle or Tacoma when in reality, it was known that she could not take them to such a place.

Unless some order on the subject comes from the authorities at Washington there seems no chance of the vessel securing the necessary license to carry passengers and the indications are this morning that she would have to depart without them.

TRENT'S BOND

The sureties on the official bond of County Treasurer R. H. Trent are Charles M. Cooke, president of the Bank of Hawaii; William G. Irwin, Cecil Brown, president of the First National Bank, and S. M. Damon head of the banking house of Bishop & Co.

Trent was at first going to secure a bond from a surety company, but as the cost of such a bond would be about $200, he decided that if he could secure individuals for surety he would save the expense of a surety company bond, to the county, if the county paid for it and to himself if the county did not. There was the utmost willingness on the part of those who became his sureties to go on his bond.

AT THE ORPHEUM

The M. B. Curtis Novelty Company gives its closing performances at the Orpheum this afternoon and evening. The company has made itself deservedly popular during its short season here. It has given Vaudeville of a high class and has pleased its patrons.

This afternoon following the matinee there will be a reception on the stage by the members of the company to those comprising the audience.

This evening will be the last performance and a specially entertaining program has been arranged.

THE RUSH FOR SALOON LICENSES

NEW LIQUOR LAW GOES INTO EFFECT TODAY—TREASURER'S OFFICE BESIEGED WITH APPLICANTS.

This is a busy day with the Territorial treasurer's office for the would-be holders of liquor licenses were piled up three deep in front of the office in order to hand in their $500 apiece. The new liquor law goes into effect today.

Only a portion of the retail dealers had taken out their licenses before today, those that had done so being the following:

Headlight Saloon, Iwilei road; S. Shimada; Iao Saloon, Beretania and Aala, S. Gotaro; Prost Saloon, 104 Beretania, E. N. Imapizi; Sunrise Saloon, 433 King, K. Ushijima; Aala Saloon, Beretania and River, Nakashima and Nogatani; Waihanu Saloon, Magoon block, J. J. Souza; Opera Annex, Queen and Millard, R. J. Monaghan; Cable Saloon, Queen and Richard, S. C. V. Turner; 20 Kukui street, R. W. Condon, 153 N. King St., W. R. Spencer; 209 King street, H. Gumpfer; Maunakea street, T. Sumida; Wigwam Saloon, Queen and South, A. O. Rosa; Hotel and Maunakea, Chung Tong Chong; Occidental Bar, Alakea and King, P. F. Ryan; Hotel and Kekaulike, Fukumatsu; Brooklyn Saloon, 821 Alakea St., J. E. Thompson; Aloha Saloon, Queen and Richards, H. Klemme; Aloha Saloon, Punchbowl St., C. H. L. Klemme; Kamehameha V and King St., J. D. Cockett; Favorite Saloon, Bethel and Hotel, F. M. Kiley; Junction Saloon, King and Beretania, H. A. Junt; Ocean View Saloon, Waikiki road, W. C. Bergin; Old Corner Saloon, Queen and Nuuanu, Lishman, Day and Macfarlane; 22 Hotel St., Morris & Patterson; Germania Saloon, 604 Godeen Ct., C. Buschjort; Queen and Kekaulike Sts., A. F. France; 66 Hotel St., Sullivan & Buckley; 993 Iwilei road, Y. Suga.

Ordinarily, Saturday is a short day with the government employees but the Treasurer's staff worked overtime today and kept open this afternoon in order to accommodate the people who were late in applying. A large number of the applicants for the "Fourth Class" or retail licenses were from men who hitherto sold under the $100 beer licenses but who will now pay $500 for the full licenses. The retail license, it will be remembered, was formerly $1000.

There was also a rush today at the office of Internal Revenue Collector Chamberlain for exactly the same reason that the Territorial was kept busy. Neither Alexander Young nor any other of the proprietors of hotel bars had applied for licenses up to 11 o'clock.

ALABAMA TONIGHT

"Alabama" will be presented for a second time tonight at the Opera House, the proceeds of the entertainment as on the former occasion going to swell the fund for providing the Kunalu Ladies' Rowing Club with a new boathouse.

Apart from the extremely worthy object of the performance the quality of the presentation of "Alabama" should fill the theater tonight. The piece is excellently staged and the parts most creditably sustained. The rough places which always manifest themselves on a first night have all been smoothed away and tonight's production promises to run from curtain to curtain like clockwork.

AROUND OAHU

W. A. Bowen and family started on a tour of this island this morning. The party went in Charles Bellina's Queen motor car, starting at 7 o'clock. The party lunched at Haleiwa, and will inspect the new dam and the pineapple cannery now in operation at Wahiawa.

DRUMCRAIG SAILS TODAY.

The British ship Drumcraig is to sail today for Portland.

TURNING OVER PUBLIC PROPERTY

Superintendent of Public Works Holloway has sent instructions to subordinates all over the islands, to turn over property of the road boards which may be needed by the count officers in their work, as soon as an inventory has been made, taking receipts for what is turned over. This is in accordance with the decision arrived at by the acting governor and heads of departments generally, and the supervisors will not have any difficulty on any of these islands in getting the use of such material as the Territory can supply them with.

The superintendent stated this morning that all the Territorial officers had received instructions to make inventories of what they had for the counties, and that as soon as this had been done the property would be at the disposal of the proper county officers.

MISSING CHILD WAS DROWNED.

Last Thursday Lili Pelee an Hawaiian boy about 9 years of age, disappeared from his home on Emily Road near the Magoon building. His parents could find no trace of him although they reported the matter to the police. A notice of the missing child was given to the newspapers. This morning a little boy discovered the body of the missing child floating near the steamer James Makee on the makai side of the harbor. The body was recovered and sent to the morgue where the parents identified the remains. A coroner's inquest was called for 2 o'clock this afternoon.

COUNTY OFFICERS' QUARTERS

This was moving day at the McIntyre block for T. McCants Stewart was moving out and the County officers were moving in.

County Attorney Douthitt will occupy the offices which Stewart has hitherto had and next to him, Waikiki will be County Clerk Kalaokalani. The Supervisors room will be further along on the King street front. The County Auditor will occupy the room on the Port street frontage next to Douthitt's.

There was nothing doing during the morning at the County offices this morning excepting the moving operations. At 2 o'clock the Supervisors had a meeting to receive and pass on the bonds of the Deputy Sheriffs.

WARRANTS FOR STEAMSHIP MEN

Warrants for the arrest of Captain Bruce, Mr. Dollar and a Japanese ticket agent, were issued today by Judge Whitney. The trio are charged with gross cheat in an alleged misrepresentation to the Japanese passengers by the S. S. Stanley Dollar, that she was to go to Tacoma or Seattle when she would be unable to land them at that place and was to go to Victoria instead.
